Webinar Report: An Awareness on POSH & PDV - Laws that Protect Women's Rights

Date: 11th December 2024

Time: 3:00 PM

Mode: Online

Overview: Rabindranath Tagore University organized an insightful webinar on "Laws that Protect Women's Rights" focusing on the Prevention of Sexual Harassment (POSH) and the Protection of Women from Domestic Violence (PDV). The webinar aimed to raise awareness among participants about the legal frameworks designed to safeguard women's rights in various environments, including workplaces and homes.

Webinar Proceedings:

1. Introduction: The webinar began with an introduction by the moderator Dr.Naish Zameer, highlighting the importance of understanding and implementing laws that protect women's rights in various spheres of life.
2. Presentation by Adv. Darshana Sawant: Adv. Sawant discussed the POSH Act, its provisions, and the mechanisms for addressing sexual harassment in the workplace. She emphasized the significance of forming Internal Complaints Committees (ICCs) in organizations and provided practical tips on handling complaints, ensuring confidentiality, and supporting victims.
3. Presentation by Adv. Sheetal Waghchoure: Adv. Waghchoure focused on the Protection of Women from Domestic Violence Act, 2005. She elaborated on the types of domestic violence, legal remedies available to victims, and the role of protection officers. Her session was filled with real-life examples and case studies, providing a comprehensive understanding of the law.
4. Open Discussion: The webinar concluded with an open discussion where participants asked questions and shared their experiences. Both speakers addressed queries related to legal procedures, the effectiveness of existing laws, and how to foster a safer environment for women both at home and at work.

Conclusion: The webinar was highly informative and provided valuable insights into the laws protecting women's rights. The participants gained a deeper understanding of POSH and PDV laws and the importance of their implementation. The Women Development Cell of Rabindranath Tagore University successfully organized an event that not only educated but also empowered its attendees.
